

Pennsylvania Marketing Representative

American Freedom Insurance Company

About this job

Job description

American Freedom Insurance Company is expanding in Pennsylvania and is seeking an experienced and highly motivated Pennsylvania Marketing Representative!

Job Responsibilities:

- Cultivate, recruit and service Philadelphia and/or Allentown , PA area agents
- Establish objectives related to growing a book of business, including new business submissions
- Increase annual premium through excellent communication, follow-up and critical problem solving with agents
- Handle special projects and other duties as assigned

Desired Skills and Experience

Qualifications:

- At least 2 years of experience marketing NSA/independent agents in Philadelphia, PA and surrounding area
- Bachelor's degree, preferred
- Excellent oral and written communicator
- Ability to build strong relationships and exert influence, both internally and with agents
- Critical technical skills
- Bilingual –Spanish (a plus)
- Valid driver's license and reliable transportation

We offer a competitive compensation package, including health insurance, a 401(k) with 4% matching, and reimbursement for mileage and expenses.

If you have an entrepreneurial spirit and desire to establish a profitable book of business in Pennsylvania, please submit your resume to marketing@americanfreedomins.com.

About this company

American Freedom, founded in 1998, expeditiously achieved an A, Excellent financial rating from A.M. Best, the most widely respected evaluator of insurance companies.

American Freedom is a property and casualty insurance organization specializing in Non Standard automobile insurance. The company is focused on serving independent agents and their customers, in the states of Illinois, Indiana and Pennsylvania. American Freedom has proven to be a recognized provider of affordable automobile insurance coverage. Please visit our website at www.americanfreedomiandask.com for more information.